SUBJECTS ARE

Credit Recovery: The student who has failed a subject can make it up during the school year or during summer vacation.

The More Advanced Student: The accelerated student can take subjects like Latin, Physics and Algebra II.

The Potential Drop-out: The potential drop-out may be motivated if he/she can take a subject that meets his/her particular interests and needs.

Summer School: In school districts where summer school is not offered, students can make up credits by means of correspondence study during June, July, and August.

AVAILABLE FOR:

The Home-bound Student: If a student is forced by illness or other reasons to withdraw from the classroom, studies can continue through home study during the absence.

Those Who Travel: Children of missionaries, businesspeople, entertainers, sport figures, and others who travel can take correspondence courses to keep up with their classes regardless of where these students may be.

Career Education: Students can be offered "career exploratory" courses such as Journalism and Office Procedures and "skill training" courses like Building Trades Blueprint Reading, I, II.

HIGH SCHOOL SUBJECTS

Credit value of each subject is one Carnegie unit unless otherwise specified. First number in parentheses indicates number of examinations.
