

AMERICAN SCHOOL® Officer of the American School

Vince Immordino, Treasurer

Mr. Immordino was elected Treasurer of the American School in 2007. He began his career with the American School in 2006 assuming the position of Controller.

Mr. Immordino is a financial and management professional with over 20 years experience in financial and business planning, accounting and administrative operations. Before coming to the American School, Mr. Immordino worked for 10 years with a public accounting firm and served eight years working with a not-for-profit entity.

Mr. Immordino received his B.S. in Accounting from Northeastern Illinois University.