

AMERICAN SCHOOL® Advisory Board of the American School

Dr. John S. Kemp, General Consultant Trustee

Dr. John S. Kemp became a General Consultant and Trustee for the American School in 2001 after serving for over twenty years on the American School Scholarship Committee. For over twenty-five years, Dr. Kemp served as Illinois State Director of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools and Professor of Educational Administration at the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign. Dr. Kemp began his career as a teacher and administrator with the Decatur, Illinois Public Schools.

Dr. Kemp has served as president of the North Central Association from 1992-1993, chairman of the NCA Commission on Schools from 1984-1985 and a longstanding member of the NCA Executive Board. He has been the chairperson of several NCA committees, including the Task Force on Student Success and the Task Force for Revising the Policies and Standards for Secondary Schools, and a member of many others, including the Overseas Dependents' Schools Committee. He has evaluated military dependent schools for NCA all over the globe.

Among the many professional associations of which Dr. Kemp is a member are the American Association of School Administrators and the National Association of Secondary School Principals.
