

AMERICAN SCHOOL® Officer of the American School

John McCulley, Educational Director Trustee

Mr. McCulley assumed the position of Educational Director of the American School in 2005. He joined the American School in 2000 as an Instructor and became the Principal of the American School in 2002.

Prior to joining the American School, Mr. McCulley was an Instructor and Principal in the Chicago Public Schools for 33 years.

Mr. McCulley received his B.A. degree in History from North Park College, Chicago, IL and his M.A. degree from DePaul University, Chicago, IL. He has taken extensive graduate work in Educational Administration, Supervision and Curriculum Development at Northeastern Illinois University.