

AMERICAN SCHOOL® Advisory Board of the American School

Mary E. McKeown, General Consultant Trustee

Ms. McKeown, retired from the American School in 2002 after serving as Educational Vice President since 1974. Upon retirement, Ms. McKeown became a General Consultant for the School and continued her position as a Trustee.

Ms. McKeown joined the American School in 1942 as a Math Instructor. Throughout her career with the American School, Ms. McKeown has written many study guides and developed training manuals outlining the techniques and procedures for correspondence training. She was responsible to set up orientation sessions for new instructors and conducted in-service training programs for the high school staff.

Ms. McKeown received her B.S. degree from the University of Chicago and her M.A. degree from De Paul University, Chicago, IL.