

AMERICAN SCHOOL® Advisory Board of the American School

Cher Tufly, General Consultant

Ms. Tufly became a General Consultant for the American School in 2008. As Regional Director for the Commission on International and Trans-Regional Accreditation (CITA) and Principal of Cher Tufly and Associates, Ms Tufly brings years of experience in educational consulting and coaching to the American School.

Ms. Tufly has been principal of several schools, including alternative high school programs, and middle schools. Additionally, Ms. Tufly has worked for two different accrediting organizations as a consultant to a variety of schools, including middle schools, high schools, distance learning schools and schools focused on special needs students. Ms. Tufly has published two articles related to student achievement and demonstration of learning.

Ms. Tufly earned her B.S. from the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado, and a Masters of Educational Administration from the University of Northern Colorado, Greeley, Colorado. She holds a current principal license and a current professional teacher license. She has thirty years of experience as a public educator, with twenty-one of those years in administration.